

Update of activities, as of October 2010:

Arkhangelsk region

June, 15 – 17, 2010 – A training course in the programme “The Incredible Years” was conducted for 15 specialists in the Arkhangelsk region.

September 16, 2010 – A protocol on intentions about cooperation on prevention of juvenile delinquency, rehabilitation and reintegration of minor offenders was signed between the Government of the Arkhangelsk region, the Correctional services of the Arkhangelsk region Arkhangelsk regional court, the Regional agency for children, youth and family affairs of Northern Norway and the Correctional services of Northern Norway.

At the moment agreements on cooperation in the social sector with the other regions are being elaborated.

Syktyvkar, the Komi republic

November, 9 – 11, 2010 – Training courses in “The Incredible Years” and “Family Group Conference” will be arranged for the specialists in the social sector of the Komi republic.

Murmansk region

March – September 2010 - The first ART training course started in the Murmansk region in March 2010. When the course ended in September 2010 with a practical exam, 23 specialists got the certificates of ART-trainers.

November, 16 – 19, 2010 – The second part of the second training course in “ART – Aggression Replacement Training” will be conducted for representatives of the institutions of social care, correctional services for minors from the Murmansk region. The course is the second one conducted in the Murmansk region in 2010.

February - November, 2010 – The training course in the programme “What about us?” has been conducted in Monchegorsk (Murmansk region). The programme is aimed at the families with disabled children and has as its goal prevention of divorces and improving communication between the parents in families with disabled children. On November 27 – 28, 2010 the third and last seminar of the course will take place in Monchegorsk. The programme is so far run only in the Murmansk region but it is planned to spread it to other regions in the North-west Russia.

Petrozavodsk, the Karelia republic

November 18, 2010 - The 5th meeting of the “Children and Youth At Risk” Steering committee will take place. The committee will discuss the progress in the project in 2010 and plan activities for 2011. Agenda in English and Russian.

November, 22 – 26, 2010 – CYAR start the second course in “ART – Aggression Replacement Training” for the specialists of the Karelia republic.